REGION 4: THREE WADIS TO AL- KARAK

05

REGION 5: AL-KARAK TO DANA

The trail continues its crusader-themed journey as you leave Karak, passing the historic village of Shehabieh and the abandoned village of Khirbet Ainun. Lush orchards and olive groves thrive in the fertile plains, offering a vibrant contrast to the rugged terrain. The path then crosses Wadi Hasa, another of the Dead Sea canyons, where the landscape shifts to towering limestone cliffs and ridges. As you make your way through the ancient Edomite ruins of Sela and Ma'atan, the trail guides you through the deep Wadi Labun. Finally, the terrain eases as you approach the restored village of Dana, perched on the rim of Wadi Dana, with breathtaking views over the vast Dana Biosphere Reserve.

REGION 7: PETRA TO WADI RUM

08

REGION 8: WADI RUM TO AQABA

As you leave behind the village of Wadi Rum, the trail takes you beneath the towering cliffs of Jabal Rum and Jabal Um Ishrin, leading you deep into the iconic, expansive beauty of Wadi Rum. This vast, almost otherworldly desert, described by T.E. Lawrence as “godlike,” will reveal its unique landscapes to you. The path then weaves past the striking cliffs of Jabal Khazali and Jabal Qattar, threading through the colorful sandstone mountains that characterize this majestic desert. Following ancient shepherd trails, the route meanders through desert wadis and across granite peaks with fascinating basalt formations. As you approach the end of this epic journey, you’ll catch your first glimpse of the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aqaba, with the Sinai Mountains in the distance. The journey culminates in the refreshing waters of the Red Sea, leading you to the port city of Aqaba.

Days: 6 days and 6 nights

Length: 99 km

Main sites in the region:

- Wadi Rum (World Heritage site)
- Wadi Rum Bedouin village
- Jebel Rum, and Jebel Um Ishrin
- Lawrence’s Spring (Ain Shellaleh) and the Nabataean Temple
- Dramatic desert scenery – sandstone domes and granite and basalt striated mountains, changing color constantly throughout the day
- Bedouin encampments
- Aqaba (Red Sea)

THE THRU-HIKE IS ORGANIZED BY THE JORDAN TRAIL ASSOCIATION

The Jordan Trail Association (JTA) was established in July 2015 and registered as a Jordanian non-governmental organization (NGO) with the aim to develop and maintain the Jordan Trail, and to support and build the capacity of local communities that the trail passes through. This trail is 675 km starting from Um Qais in the top north to Aqaba in the very south of Jordan.

The trail is a national product that promotes Jordan nature and culture at its best and attracts local and International tourists.

GET INVOLVED

The Jordan Trail is still a work in progress! The trail route presented in this booklet and on the website represents only one of many possible ways to walk the length of the country and to experience the Jordanian countryside. Feel free to discover your own route variations and to suggest new possibilities.

If you have resources that could be useful to potential Jordan Trail hikers, share them with us through info@jordantrail.org. Help us develop our website by sending us any relevant information or materials you may have gathered whether from hiking the trail or from other experiences in the region.
